FAITH • FILLED GENEROSITY

As we look to the year to come, we are more committed than ever to the ministry and love we share with our community and our neighbors. Our ministry is funded through the gifts of its members — your generous offerings given in grace and love. This year we are asking for every member to take part in our stewardship campaign by making a pledge. You can expect to receive the stewardship mailing by October 25.

We will be hearing messages of Generosity as we move through the weeks of this year's stewardship season. The Gospel is rich with examples of how our faith kindles our love for each other and our Christian responsibility to share our love with the world. We invite you and your household to pray and learn, taking these weeks to consider how your generous response to God's call has been shaped by this community and the friends who gather with you.

The Big Class: Civil Conversations in Uncivil Times

Registration is now open for an amazing, free class to help us faithfully prepare for the November elections: The Big Class: Civil Conversations in Uncivil Times — Practicing Our Faith in the Public Square with Ray Suarez.

In this contentious election season, many of us are looking for ways to bring our faith into our political interactions. Ray Suarez knows a lot about contentious political landscapes. He also knows a great deal about faith. As an award-winning journalist (PBS Newshour, NPR, Al Jazeera), college instructor, and outspoken Episcopalian, he has written a book on the subject of faith and politics in the United States.

You can take this course at your own pace, at whatever time suits you. It should take less than an hour to complete, and students will have an opportunity to ask the instructor questions.

This course is free thanks to the generosity of The Episcopal Church, the Episcopal Church Foundation, Trinity Wall Street, the Consortium of Endowed Episcopal Churches, Forward Movement, and ChurchNext.

Christ Church will host a Zoom gathering on October 20 at 7pm to discuss further as a faith community. Zoom information below.
